ACTING

01

Liefeling ~ Die Movie (male lead role)

The movie was released in November 2010 and broke all the records in South Africa for an Afrikaans film. Bobby played the male lead role in the movie as a young student who falls in love with his professor's daughter. As this was a musical – the producers used some of South Africa's most popular singers and actors for this movie. Till date "Liefeling" is the Highest grossing Afrikaans film ever made.

02

As Jy Sing (male lead role)

Bobby played the male lead role in the hit Afrikaans movie - As Jy Sing - released on 15 Nov 2013. The film was a smash hit and became the no.1 ticket seller at all the Ster Kinekor theatres countrywide. This as well is a musical and once again singers and actors were chosen for the cast. In this movie Bobby plays the part of a teacher.

THEATRE PRODUCTIONS

After the runaway success of Liefeling - die Movie – the producers used the story line of the movie and turned it into a theatre production. The show sold out and was a huge success with an astonishing 38 000 tickets sold. Fans travelled 1500 km to Pretoria just to see this production and are demanding more shows to be scheduled.

Bobby played the male lead role in this production.

In December 2014 “LIEFLING” was in theatre at Monte Casino's Teatro. It was the first Afrikaans musical to ever play in this theatre.

“DROOMKIND, Die Storie van Josef”. Bobby will be playing the lead role of Joseph. This production has received rave reviews when it ran in the State theatre in April 2014.

MUSICAL PRODUCTIONS

In June - July 2012 Bobby was part of a musical production that was written by Nathaniël, a well-known performer in South Africa. They had performances in Pretoria, Bloemfontein and Cape Town.

During the KKNK 2016 formed part of a musical production “Al lê die berge nog so blou” which was written by Schalk Joubert Productions. It won the KANNA award for Best Musical Production.
